

A photograph of a metal gate leading into a cemetery. The gate is made of dark metal with several horizontal bars. A white rectangular sign with a red border is attached to the gate. The sign has the text "NEW ENGLAND CEMETERY" in red, serif, all-caps font. The gate is set in a grassy field with a dirt path leading through it. In the background, there are many tall, thin evergreen trees under a cloudy sky. A small, bushy green plant is visible in the middle ground.
